Woodville Consultants Limited would like to thank all investors for their continued support.

Over 26,000 claims have been funded since July 2019, with zero defaults, and the company continues to work towards the goal of becoming a leading UK litigation funding specialist.

We have several other active note issuances which remain open for re-investment to qualifying investors. Woodville Consultants Limited will continue to raise capital to help continue to grow the loan book, which now sits at over £35m.

We hope our clients have been satisfied by the service we have provided to date, and look forward to working with our investors in the future.

Should you have any other queries, please do not hesitate to get in touch.
