- 19.8.3 The Designated Beneficiary predeceasing the Contract Owner.
- 19.8.4 The ownership of the Contract is changed by deed of assignment.
- 19.9 Where the Contract is taken out or held by one Contract Owner, and in the absence of a Designated Beneficiary, the Company will accept instructions from the deceased Contract Owner's legally appointed executor, personal representative, or administrator (as applicable) of their estate. In this case, payment of any outstanding Contract Benefit or termination value will be paid to the executor, personal representative, or administrator of the estate.
- 20. Unclaimed Contract Benefits
- 20.1 Although the Company will pay the relevant Contract Benefits, there may be situations where the Contract Owner or Designated Beneficiary do not claim the Contract Benefits.
- 20.2 In such a situation the Company will endeavour to contact the Contract Owner or Designated Beneficiary by any reasonable means available at the time. If after all reasonable efforts to contact the Contract Owner or Designated Beneficiary are exhausted or five years elapse from the date the Contract Benefit was due to be paid, then the Contract Benefit will be classified as unclaimed.

- 22. Tax
- 22.1 In the event of any changes in taxation (including change due to an alteration in the residency states of the Contract Owner) affecting the Company's liability, which become effective after the Contract Start Date in relation to either the Company or the Contract Benefits, the Company shall make such modifications as are necessary to enable the Company to meet the benefits and conditions as closely as is reasonably possible whilst acting within the confinements imposed upon the Company by such changes in taxation.
- 22.2 In the event that the Company's appointed actuary decides that the changes are not possible then the Contract will be terminated. The terms of the termination will be determined by the appointed actuary who will take into account the interests of the Contract Owner and those of the Company.
- 22.3 Any personal tax reporting obligations or liabilities incurred are solely the Contract Owner's responsibility. The Company bears no responsibility for any tax arising on the Contract Owner as a result of the Contract.

Contract Terms and Conditions

23. Amendment

- 23.1. The Contract may only be varied by a written endorsement issued by the Company.
- 23.2. The Company may change the terms of the Contract where there are legal, regulatory, or other circumstances that materially affect its ability to meet or perform its obligations under the Contract.

- 23.4. Any amendment will be notified to the Contract Owner through the Online Account.

24. Assignments

- 24.1. Any change of ownership of the Contract should be made by deed of assignment. No assignment of the Contract by the Contract Owner(s) shall be binding on the Company unless it is in writing and a notice of assignment has been received by the Company whilst the Contract is active. The deed of assignment must be fully completed and signed by the current Contract Owner(s) and the new Contract Owner(s).
- 24.2. The Company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment and where accepted shall be entitled to rely on the express written instructions in the assignment instrument.
- 24.3. The deed of assignment will be finalised by the Company once all verification of identity and address documentation in connection with the assignment has been received by the Company.
- 24.4. The Company reserves the right to reject an assignment.
- 24.5. The Company reserves the right to assign or novate any or all of its rights and obligations under the Contract to a third party at any time upon giving the Contract Owner(s) at least two (2) months' notice in writing.
- 24.6. The Contract Owner(s) will be deemed to have accepted the novation and/or assignment of the Contract one (1) month from receipt of the notice if the Company has received no instruction to terminate the Contract from the Contract Owner.

25. Deferral

- 25.1. In exceptional circumstances it may be necessary where there is reasonable and sufficient cause for the Company to defer to act upon the Contract Owners instructions to: accept Contributions; change Investment Options; or pay the Contract Benefit.
- 25.2. The Company will communicate with the Contract Owner through the Online Account as soon as reasonably practicable to confirm the reasons for any required deferral action and any actions the Contract Owner may need to take, which may relate to events such as but not limited to:
 - 25.2.1. a suspension or closure of a selected Investment Option;
 - 25.2.2. an underlying external fund being subject to exceptional trade volumes that impacts the operation of a selected Investment Option; or
 - 25.2.3. other reasons outside of the Company's control.
- 25.3. It is not possible to specify every potential event, but where appropriate the Company's appointed actuary will act to protect the collective interests of its Contract Owners, and to ensure that its Contract Owners are treated fairly.
- 25.4. As a deferment can arise for numerous reasons, the Company has the right to value the Hansard Unit-linked Fund at nil or on any other reasonable basis during the period of deferment. External fund managers of an underlying asset in any Hansard Unit-linked Fund may exercise similar rights of deferment.

- 25.5. Where it becomes necessary to defer, the Contract Benefit, switch and/or redirection will be calculated on the next Valuation Day after the end of the period of deferment.

- 25.6. The Company shall be entitled to a reasonable extension of time to perform any obligation under this Contract where the delay is due to any cause beyond its reasonable control.

26. Force Majeure

- 26.1. The Company will not be responsible for any delays or losses resulting from causes beyond its reasonable control, including without limitation: fire, explosion, flood, earthquake, storm, tornado, hurricane, war, strike, riots, acts of terrorism, or acts of God, mechanical breakdown, computer or system failure, interruption of power supplies, legislative changes, market conditions affecting the execution of transactions or value of Investment Options, any other cause beyond our reasonable control as a consequence of which we can no longer administer your Contract for a given period. The Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to avoid or remove such causes of non-performance and continued performance under the Contract as soon as reasonably practicable.

28. Miscellaneous Provisions

- 28.1. The Contract is an agreement between the Company and the Contract Owner, and no other party shall have any legal rights in relation to the Contract. Notwithstanding this, if the Contract Owner is incapacitated, either mentally or physically, and has put in place an Enduring Power of Attorney, the Company will accept the appointment of the Contract Owner's Attorney as having legal authority over the Contract once the Company has been provided with documentary evidence that confirms to its reasonable satisfaction a bona fide appointment and proof of identification of the natural person under the Enduring Power of Attorney.

29. Waiver

- 29.1. No delay or omission by us in exercising any right under the Contract will operate as a waiver of it, nor will any single or partial exercise of it preclude any further exercise of any right.
- 29.2. No waiver of any breach of the Contract, and no course of dealing between the contracting parties, shall be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the Contract.
