Notes

1. This illustration is provided to you for guidance only and does not form part of your contract. The illustrated benefits are not guaranteed and do not represent the minimum or maximum returns that may be achieved from your unit fund selection.
2. The illustrated benefits take into account all standard product charges. The illustration growth rates used assume that all fund administration costs, including the 1.5% accumulator unit AMC, have already been deducted.
3. This illustration should be read in conjunction with the Prospectus and Contract Terms and Conditions applying to the product you have chosen.
4. The unit price growth rate assumptions that have been selected by you or your independent financial advisor have been used throughout the term of the contract. The values of the illustrated benefits have been rounded to three significant figures.
5. Past performance is not a guide to future performance. The unit prices can fall as well as rise. Therefore the value of your benefits may be less than the total contributions you have paid.
6. For the purpose of this illustration, contributions, unit fund selections and benefits are assumed to be in contract currency. Exchange rate fluctuations may affect the value of your benefits. The exchange rate which has been used to convert monetary charges to the contract currency is USD 1.16:GBP 1.00.
7. The effects of inflation may reduce the purchasing power of the illustrated benefits.
8. This illustration does not take into account any fund advisor fee arrangements you may authorise from time to time.
9. The valid form of this document is that which is in your policy language; any translations into a different language are for courtesy only. If in doubt, please contact your independent financial advisor.
10. This illustration makes no allowance for any taxes due on this contract such as local taxes on product charges, where applicable. The tax treatment of this contract will depend on your country of residence or citizenship and other personal circumstances. If you are in doubt over your circumstances, you should consult your own professional tax advisor.
