Dear Ulises Cesar Benel Samame

RE: Maturing Woodville ATE Loan Note

We are writing to inform you that your Woodville ATE Loan Note matures on 26th April 2025.

Your investment over the last 24 months which has greatly contributed to Woodville Consultants Limited's growth. Thanks to your support we have:

- Grown our loan book to over £120 million.
- Funded over 70,000 legal claims with zero defaults
- Attracted over 3,000 private investors, including family offices, private banks and institutions

As your note matures, you have two options:

1. Reinvest Your Funds: Reinvest your maturing funds (capital, capital plus interest, or any specified amount) into another Woodville ATE Loan Note to continue benefiting from our strong growth and positive returns. Should you choose to reinvest, all we require is your notification by email, followed by an application form and updated AML (proof of address and identification).

2. Receive Back Your Investment Proceeds: Unless advised otherwise, your maturing funds will be returned to the following account:

- Bank Name: BCP BANCO DE CREDITO DEL PERU
- Account Holder Name: ULISES CESAR BENEL SAMAME
- Account Number / IBAN: 19318095362142
- Bank Identifier Code: BCPLPEPL

If you have any queries or wish to provide instructions regarding your maturing funds, please contact your adviser. Our investor relations team is also here to assist with any questions or details you may need. You can contact them via email at investors@wclate.com.

Thank you for your continued support and for choosing to invest in the Woodville ATE Loan Note.

Kind regards

Peter Legge
