Important Notes

- Where the Investment Manager is not known to Capital International Group, or any of its member companies, then we will require a completed and signed Investment Manager Agreement from them prior to us acting on any of their instructions. (Separate form available on request).
- Investment Managers can operate in one of two ways:
  1. Model Managers can only give instructions on the models they manage and are directly assigned to, but not the associated client portfolios.
  2. Portfolio Managers can be assigned directly to client accounts for the purposes of managing the assets held on account by client(s).
- Investment Managers are not authorised to make any withdrawals from your accounts which they manage unless they are also your appointed intermediary on the account. In any event withdrawals are only ever paid directly to an account in your name as previously defined by you at Section 5 above.
- For the avoidance of doubt Capital International Group and any of its member companies are under no liability or have any responsibility to monitor the investment activity or advice of your Investment Manager.
- Capital International Group and any of its member companies accept no liability in respect of any error made by your Investment Manager during the course of them providing their services to you in the provision of any instruction to us in connection thereto.
